Spectacular Views!

This remarkable property, complete with water rights, borders the Gila National Forest and offers stunning views of the Gila Wilderness. The land is graced with towering old-growth oak, pinon pine, juniper and sycamore trees. A professionally installed irrigation system covers six irrigated acres of permanent pasture grasses, with drip irrigation available throughout. Additional features include a 1.5-acre fenced horse paddock, a barn shelter with rubber mat flooring, and underground electric lines servicing multiple potential building sites.
